Understand the Propositions

Here is the final list of State Propositions that you'll have to decide about next Tuesday. In three previous weeks 17 of the Propositions were offered in easy-to-understand language. Some of them had this newspaper's recommendation for the vote. This week:

Prop. 18: Obscenity Legislation (Initiative Legislation)—Offers additional definitions on smut. Beefs up the penalties and permits seizures and injunctions. Some elements are desirable but the grave danger is that it gives the State a license to censor. Vote "No."

Prop. 19: (Initiative)—Legalize marijuana. The specious argument that tobacco and alcoholic beverages are legal should not be accepted as a rationale for approving another drug that gives the user a flight from reality. Vote "No."

Prop. 20: Coastal Zone Conservation (Initiative)—There's an awful lot of money being spent on this one. It would give a state commission authority to set criteria for use of all land within five miles of the shoreline. Shoreline areas should be kept open to the public but local government could do it better with the $5 million the state would appropriate if enacted. Vote "No."

Prop. 21: Assignment of Students to Schools (Initiative)—Desensitizes the silly and costly busing law and gives the student the privilege of attending the school of his choice. Vote "Yes."

Prop. 22: Agricultural Labor Relations (Initiative)—Passage would bring collective bargaining to California's seasonal and migrant workers through another permanent state bureau and permanent union organizations. It probably would reduce boycotts. Vote "No."

For those who need a guide for voting all the Propositions, clip this:

1. no; 2. yes; 3. yes; 4. no; 5. yes; 6. yes; 7. yes; 8. yes; 9. no; 10. yes; 11. yes; 12. yes; 13. no; 14. no; 15. no; 16. no; 17. yes; 18. no; 19. no; 20. no; 21. yes; 22. no.

In other races: President: Richard Nixon; Congress: Lionel Van Deerlin; Assembly: Wadie Deddeh; County Clerk: Jesse Osuna.

Vote For Gene French

The selection of supervisor for the east county's Second Supervisorial District is as important as any issue on Tuesday's oversized ballot.

This publication supports the election of Gene French over Dick Brown for two reasons.

Both involve Brown's own actions. First, Brown is a member, and past president, of the policy committee of the Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO). This organization issued a report which would have the effect of confiscating east county property for open space. The report suggests that every possible, legally permissible device short of purchase (of property) must be utilized to meet its objectives. If 900-1000 square miles of property were thus acquired in the western third of the county, it is estimated by the assessor's office that up to $7 billion in assessed valuation would be shifted to homeowners raising the tax burden as much as 30 per cent in addition to depriving owners the use of their land. To Brown's credit, he asked CPO to re-examine the report which was developed with Brown seated as a CPO member.

The second is Brown's demand of five county newspapers to "retract" material they published purporting to show Brown's track record in El Cajon where he serves as city councilman.

He ordered his attorneys to demand that this newspaper and four others retract political material critical of him as a politician.

Whether a candidate likes it or not, he opens himself to criticism by the very fact that he enters a public race. Newspapers have a responsibility to publish material regarding those who seek public office. There would be no need for newspapers if they published only complimentary items about those who would govern. There would be no need for elections, either.

It has been stated accurately that the public's only defense against government is his newspaper. It would be unfortunate for candidates, and the public too, if newspapers could be frightened into withholding information by which the voter can make a judgement.

It was reporters, not candidates, who unearthed the Tom Eagleton affair; the Watergate matter, and the Ellsworth Papers thievery. Locally, reporters were instrumental in finding dishonesty in the San Diego County Assessor's office on two occasions.

There was some pretty good reportorial work in uncovering distasteful elements of the elusive CPO report—elements through which property owners could suffer severe financial loss via a dictatorial policy.

For these reasons your vote should go to Gene French for Supervisor in the Second District.

Gillis Tries for Office Again

It was about eight years ago that a young attorney, Stephen Gillis, surfaced as a political candidate in San Diego for the post of district attorney. He ran against D.A. Don Keller, since retired.

At that time this column revealed that candidate Gillis was the former husband of Elizabeth (Ma) Duncan, the last woman to be executed in San Quentin's gas chamber.

He has surfaced again, politically. This time he is in a race to unseat veteran State Senator Jack Schrade of San Diego. Records indicate that "Ma" Duncan succeeded in marrying Gillis in January, 1954 by promising him $50,000. He was a 27-year old Hastings College law student at the time. Ma Gillis was 50.

Gillis has said that he never received $50,000 or lived with the woman. He said she did give him a $10,000 check, according to a rehab of the event in the San Jose MERCURY. He said he knew the check to be bad but at her insistence he deposited it in a Loma Linda bank. He told the court it bounced.

The marriage was annulled April 5, 1956, more than two years before the murder for which Mrs. Duncan was sentenced to die. Although she protested her innocence to the end, she was convicted of hiring two men who were also executed, to murder her pregnant daughter-in-law, Olga Duncan, a 30-year old nurse.

Mrs. Duncan was executed on August 8, 1962, ending what was described as a tragic mother love which could tolerate no rivals for her son Frank's affection.

The murder of Olga Duncan occurred two years after the Gillis' marriage to her mother-in-law had been annulled.

American Board of Family Practice. His fellowship was awarded Sept. 26.

Dr. Brumbaugh has been active in the local Academy of General Practice of San Diego, has been past president, is presently serving on the State Board of Directors of the California Academy of General Practice, and also is serving on the scientific program committee of the American Academy of Family Physicians.

He is also active in the local medical society, having served as delegate to the California Medical Association for more than twelve years, and recently resigned as chairman of the San Diego Delegation to become a member of the Council of the California Medical Association as one of two local doctors representing San Diego County.

He is past president of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis club; past Lt. Governor of the Kiwanis District; a past chief of staff of Grossmont hospital and past moderator of the Lemon Grove United Church of Christ (Congregational).

He is father of several children — all girls.

Dr. Brumbaugh has practiced in Lemon Grove since 1952, originally joining Dr. Wesley R. Herbert, and the association has now grown to the Lemon Grove Medical Group which consists of twelve doctors including a surgeon, gynecologist and ophthalmologist.

Winds Cause Power Failure In Casa de Oro

Gusty winds in the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley area early this week caused little damage, aside from a power failure in the Casa de Oro area.

According to reports from the San Diego Gas and Electric Company, a guy wire was blown against power lines behind Monte Vista High School Monday afternoon, causing lights to go out in the Casa de Oro area, a small portion of Spring Valley, and the south-east slopes of Mt. Helix.

Part of the area had power again about an hour later, but the remainder of the black-out was not remedied for about two hours.

Reports from the weather bureau indicated that winds reached gusts of over 30 miles per hour Monday afternoon, and reports from other parts of the county indicated gusts of nearly 50 miles per hour.

On Friday, last week, .02 inches of rain fell bringing the season total to 1.48.

Contract Awarded For Highway Resurfacing

A $792,986 contract was awarded to Asphalt Services and C. H. Lawrence of Ocean-side last week for a total of 722 miles of resurfacing and sealcoating of various stretches of state highways in this county.

The bid was the lowest of four received by the State Department of Public Works.

The firm will be placing an asphalt concrete blanket on interchange ramps on Highway 94 and Highway 125 from 28th street to Interstate 8.

Also scheduled is sealcoating of Highway 94 between 4.5 miles and 7.5 miles east of San Diego.

Approval Seen For Grossmont Expansion

NOT BAD AT ALL — Louis Poluzzi, president of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club, samples one of a box car full of apples at opening ceremonies last week, as Kiwanis Apple Days kicked off Wednesday. Poluzzi said that the apples this year are the best in

Project Delays To End

Grossmont Hospital's proposed $10.5 million expansion project finally got approval from the California Comprehensive Health Planning Council.

The council, which is responsible for ensuring that new hospital construction matches demand in the state, granted the expansion on a variance appeal from the hospital, according to hospital administrator Ronald Dahlgren.

Dahlgren indicated that the project could be underway by May of 1973, if technical approval of detailed architectural plans is obtained without problems.

The facility, which will be a six-story structure, will add 164 beds to the area, bringing the hospital's bed capacity to 340.

The proposed expansion plan began seven years ago, when approval of a bond issue was sought from the district voters. Two bonds were defeated before approval from voters was granted in 1970, in the form of a tax rate levy of 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The year before, approval of the project was granted and the hospital expansion was all set to get underway.

But delays took their toll, and this year it was discovered that approval of the expansion had been allowed to lapse, since no construction had begun within two years of the approval.

It appeared that many dollars would be wasted as the hospital tried and failed to obtain approval again for the project.

The district appealed the decision, however, and an announcement last week from the state CHPC indicated that approval will be granted at a Nov. 6 meeting.

CoC Directors Discuss United Crusade, Santa

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met Thursday noon and briefly discussed items for consideration, although no action was taken.

Helen Myers, chamber secretary, reported on the San Diego State Band Boosters Club, which is seeking donations. Money raised is used to outfit and fund the marching Aztecs and other SDSU bands.

Director Rosemary Johnston suggested that the chamber consider a study of a chamber-hired Santa Claus for the Christmas season. She indicated she would report back at the next meeting with figures and ideas.

Bob Guest told those in attendance that the United Crusade campaign is getting underway in Lemon Grove and suggested that merchants be prepared to support the annual fund drive. Guest is Lemon Grove Chairman for the Crusade this year.

The Chamber's financial statement for the last month was introduced, noting that $348 had been received, offsetting expenditures of $308.37, leaving the total on hand of $1,135.11.

Property Owners To Receive Lemon Grove Community Plan

The Lemon Grove Planning Association's community plan will be mailed to all property owners in the area within the next week, the association's executive committee was told at its regular meeting last week.

The plan, which is also available to those other than property owners from the LG Chamber of Commerce Office at 3415 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, will be presented to the general membership at the November 9 meeting.

After approval by the general membership, the plan will go to the county, where the Board of Supervisors and Planning Commission will consider it. Once adopted by the county, the plan will have the "force and effect of law", according to Robert Kelsay, chief of the community planning division, who spoke at last week's executive committee meeting.

The plan will be used by the board of supervisors, the planning commission, and county council as the basis for rezoning and other planning decisions.

Kelsay also reported to the executive committee on the recently-adopted environmental impact program, which calls for a report to accompany all building permits covering such items as erosion, wildlife, and pollution.

Another item of note handled at last week's meeting was a letter of opposition to the San Diego City Planning Commission regarding the proposed College Crest Subdivision.

Frank Ball, a member of the executive committee, presented the letter, which indicated that the planning association "in general . . . feels that to allow one of the last remaining parcels of undeveloped land in a region of moderate density, and no parks, to be developed into a nodule of high population density, would be an undesirable decision for a planning body to make."

The planning association voted to oppose the plan both via the letter and by personal appearance at the November 8 hearing of the SD City Planning Commission. The hearing will get underway at 3 p.m. in the 12th floor council chambers at 202 C st., San Diego.

The 154-unit proposed development lies within the boundaries of the Lemon Grove Planning Association and the Lemon Grove School District, but was annexed earlier to the City of San Diego.

The next meeting of the Planning Association will be at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday evening in the auditorium at Lemon Grove Junior High School. The meeting is a general meeting, and all residents of the area are invited to attend.

On tap for the meeting, in addition to the consideration of the community plan, will be a presentation by Supervisor Henry Boney, who will discuss CPO, the controversial Comprehensive Planning Organization.

Hemmer Resigns From Fire Protection Board

John Hemmer, who was a longtime member of the Board of Directors of the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District, has resigned his position on the board.

Hemmer's resignation was submitted at the October 23 meeting of the board. He was forced to give up the post after moving to Illinois, as required by his firm, a stock brokerage outfit.

The board will appoint a replacement to fill the seat until an election is held.

Bob Guest told those in attendance that the United Crusade campaign is getting underway in Lemon Grove and suggested that merchants be prepared to support the annual fund drive. Guest is Lemon Grove Chairman for the Crusade this year.

The Chamber's financial statement for the last month was introduced, noting that $348 had been received, offsetting expenditures of $308.37, leaving the total on hand of $1,135.11.

HALLOWEEN COSTUMES — Employees at the Lemon Grove branch of United States National Bank this week were garbed in costumes for the Halloween season. Bob Guest, manager of the bank, indicated that costumes ranged from a red devil to a green witch, and a POW to a desperado. Bank employees also wear old time costumes annually during the Lemon Grove Old Times Days celebrations.

Mail Bag

Dear Editor:
As the imprisonment of Peter Bridge of the Newark News shows, the Supreme Court abridgement of the First Amendment press guarantee is already having a repressive ripple effect which, if not broken, can ultimately destroy the vitality of the press in America. Yet large segments of the public, the politicians and, surprisingly, the press itself still don't seem to fully understand either the problem or the stakes.

The only way out, as I tried to make clear in my testimony before a House subcommittee, is for Congress to accept the invitation of the Court and write into law the absolute right of press confidentiality which most of us had thought all along was inherent in the First Amendment — until the Court told us otherwise. Yet of the 28 shield bills now pending in Congress, only my bill and its companion bills in the House call for a no-exception, unqualified privilege.

My bill has so far gained the support of the Newspaper Guild, several regional press associations and scores of individual newspapers. I have already used some of the supportive editorials in trying to line up Congressional votes and I will be using still more — particularly next session when the battle over this issue gets into full swing.

Best regards,
Alan Cranston

Learn Spanish The Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Cross" may be translated into Spanish and produce several different meanings. Much depends upon the intention. "Cross," in the sense of "being cross with someone" is translated "enojarse." Thus we might say "No se enoje conmigo." (Don't be cross with me.) or "El va a enojarse." (He is going to be cross.)

"Cross out" is expressed with variations of "tachar." This is seen in expressions like "Voy a tachar dos palabras." (I am going to cross out two words.) and "Se puede tachar el numero seis?" (Can you cross out the number six?). A variation of the "tachar" is "tache." This appears in phrases like "Tache usted los nombres de los miembros inactivos." (Cross out the names of the inactive members.) and "No tache mi nombre de la lista." (Don't cross my name off the list.)

"Cross ones mind" is expressed with variations of the Spanish verb "ocurrir." This may be observed in the phrases "Cuando se le ocurre esto?" (When did that cross your mind?) and "Se le ocurre a usted hacer esto?" (Does it cross your mind to do this?).

"Cross" in its simplest and most direct form is "cruzar." We may use this to express "Vamos a cruzar con cuidado." (We are going to cross with care.) and "Tenemos que cruzar en un minuto." (We have to cross in a minute.) The noun form is "cruza." It may appear in phrases like "Ponga una cruz aqui." (Put a cross here.) and "Hay una cruz en el mapa." (There is a cross in the map.)

Additional phrases are listed below for demonstrating the variations in translation of "cross." You may enjoy learning them with the aid of the automatic voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "No se enoje." (noh seh eh-noh-heh) for "Don't be cross."

Say "Tache dos palabras." (TAH-cheh dohs pah-LAH-brahs) for "Cross out two words."

Say "Se le ocurre a usted?" (seh leh oh-koo-ree-OH-ah oo-STEHD) for "Did it cross your mind?"

Say "Ponga una cruz aqui." (POHN-gah OON-nah kruhs ah-KEE) for "Put a cross here."

Say "Tache una letra." (TAH-che OON-nah LEH-trah) for "Cross out one letter."

REAPPOINTED — Sheriff John F. Duffy will head the 1973 San Diego-Imperial March of Dimes drive as its campaign chairman, it was announced yesterday. The campaign will be conducted in the traditional month of January.

Sheriff Duffy Accepts March of Dimes Post

Sheriff John F. Duffy has been reappointed campaign chairman for the San Diego-Imperial 1973 March of Dimes drive against birth defects.

Announcement of his appointment was made yesterday by Tom Prendergast, chapter chairman for the voluntary health organization.

Duffy, who has served as sheriff of San Diego County since 1970, will direct the annual fund-raising appeal held in San Diego and Imperial Counties from January 1-31.

"We had a most successful campaign in 1972 and I'm certain with the new interest in our projects ahead we will do even better in '73," the sheriff said.

In discussing his appointment, Duffy told of several things the March of Dimes has been doing in the area. "As a member of the community for many years and through my involvement with the March of Dimes last year as campaign chairman, I have learned of many great achievements that some of us are

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh

Has a good record on . . .
EDUCATION

Wadie Deddeh has worked to solve the major problems facing California's educational system, including financial and equal educational opportunities.

Assemblyman Deddeh recognizes that the property tax is not the best financial base for education. He has supported and co-authored legislation to provide equal opportunities for all children, no matter what the local property tax base of the district where they live. Because every school district in the 77th Assembly District has a low property tax base per student, this means better schools for your children and lower taxes for you.

Impossible? Not if the Senate will pass legislation which Deddeh supported to raise State school support by $500 million and increase the homeowner property tax exemption to $1700, trimming taxes on a home about $120 a year.

For those parents who choose to send their children to private schools, Deddeh has supported legislation to provide those children with free text books and to allow tax credits for part of the tuition payments.

When Assemblyman Deddeh was elected in 1966, bilingual education was illegal in California. Today bilingual pilot programs are providing educational opportunities for children in San Diego and San Francisco as a result of legislation Deddeh sponsored.

Deddeh also co-authored legislation increasing State support for school drug and narcotic prevention programs, and increasing State support for special projects for mentally retarded and physically handicapped children.

An educator himself, Deddeh's record is the best testimony of his commitment to education.

Duffy recalled that it was the exclusive development of the Salk and Sabin vaccines which virtually eliminated polio as a health problem.

Local Student To Attend Conference

Seven of San Diego County's outstanding science students, including one student from Monte Vista High School, will leave Wednesday to attend the National Youth Conference on Science and the Environment in Chicago.

The local student is John Lamping, who will be accompanied by his science instructor, John W. Burak. Lamping and the other students who will go were honored at an October 25 dinner at the Reuben E. Lee. The students are sponsored on the trip by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

The conference, held under auspices of the National Science Teachers Association and the investor-owned electric power industry, will be in the Chicago-Sheraton Hotel November 9 to 11.

President Nixon vs. Senator McGovern

(Or, change that will work vs. change that won't work.)

President Nixon's idea of change is orderly—and works. Senator McGovern's ideas about change can easily prove chaotic—and won't work.

Under President Nixon, America has become quieter than it was in 1968. Our campuses are back to scholarship. Our cities no longer have frequent riots. The drug traffic into America has slowed down. Last year, for the first time, 80 major cities reported a decrease in crime. Funding to save our environment has increased 500%—and the effects are beginning to be felt. The door has been opened to China. A limited arms treaty has been signed with Russia. Half-a-million Americans have been brought home from Vietnam.

There's much, much more. All of it change. But orderly change. Compare this change, the change we have had under President Nixon, with the change we could have under Senator McGovern. Many already have. And they're among those saying that America needs President Nixon—now more than ever.

President Nixon. Now more than ever.

Students To Attend Spanish Camp Affair

Spanish language students from high schools throughout San Diego County will leave Saturday, November 11, for a two-day Language Camp at Camp Palomar which is designed to sharpen their skills at speaking and comprehension.

About 185 youngsters will begin speaking Spanish the moment they set foot on the buses Saturday morning, and will continue until they return home Sunday evening, in what is called a "total immersion" process by Margaret Chaimson, Spanish teacher at El Cajon Valley High School. Students from Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista High Schools will be included.

"They all have to sign an agreement that they won't use English at all during the two days," Miss Chaimson said, adding that everything will have a Spanish "flavor," even the meals.

Students will have to learn to think in the language, even as they use such simple phrases as "pass the salt, please" at meals, and as they participate in the dances, singing, and sports events which are planned for the weekend.

They will also have an opportunity to learn how to count Mexican money. Each student is being asked to bring along a couple of dollars, which will be exchanged for Mexican money at the "Casa de Cambio," or money changing house. Any purchases they wish to make during the

Monte Vista

The Monte Vista High School PTSA and ASB has invited all parents, alumni, and interested citizens to attend the annual Fall Open House this evening at 7 p.m.

This week is also Homecoming week on campus, highlighted by the football game with Granite Hills at 8 p.m. Friday night, featuring the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, followed by a dance in the gym.

Since Monte Vista is on double sessions this fall, the open house will also be a double

Parents will follow their student's schedule for 10-minute periods to meet teachers, visit rooms, and hear brief summaries of course outlines and expectations. With the double session plan, parents will have ample time to visit special areas of interest when their students have no scheduled class, such as the reading lab, career information center, shops and activity areas, counseling offices, and library.

Refreshments will be available in the library. Parents are asked to bring a blue chip or S & H green stamp book or books to support the PTSA scholarship fund.

Swim in Annual Pentathlon Meet

Caroline and Kathy Hart, of Spring Valley, swam in the Coronado-Navy annual Pentathlon meet October 21-22. The Pentathlon is a unique swimming meet in that participants must swim in all events against swimmers their own age.

After swimming butterfly, backstroke, breaststroke, freestyle, and individual medley, the swimmer who scores the lowest total place points in his age bracket wins.

This year Kathy, age 12, won the first place trophy in a close and thrilling competition in one of the toughest age groups. Caroline, age 10, set a Pacific Southwest Association, A.A.U., record in swimming the 50-meter breaststroke in 42.3 topping her best previous time by two seconds.

The two Harts swim for the Carman Ranch Swimming Association.

Buddy Hackett Heads Comedians' Golf Classic

Fun-loving and hilarious comic, Buddy Hackett will be chairman of the 12th Annual Comedians' Golf Classic and Awards banquet, Milton Blackstone, executive director announced. The event will be held at La Costa Country Club, Rancho La Costa, Calif. May 17-19, and will once again benefit projects for multi-handicapped children.

"The Classic attempts to reflect the personality of its chairman and as such, will undergo several changes in both golf and social activities," Blackstone said. "Buddy, despite his clowning style, is a stickler for adhering to the rules of play and our format promises to be more competitive this year."

Hackett succeeds Jack Lemmon who served as chairman in 1971 and 1972. Lemmon is honorary chairman and a member of the executive committee which also includes Dick Martin, Don Adams, Monty Hall, Hackett, Blackstone and the soon to be named Dinner Chairman.

Last year's award winners included Groucho Marx, Fred MacMurray, Lucille Ball and Tommy Jacobs, La Costa's Director of Golf and former touring pro.

Where is the "Coastal Zone" in SAN DIEGO COUNTY?

Proposition No. 20—the so-called "Coastal Initiative"—takes away land-use control from you who live in coastal counties, and turns decision-making over to appointed State commissions

It establishes a virtual moratorium for nearly five years on any construction—public or private—within a "permit area". This permit area is the land lying 1,000 yards (3/5 of a mile) inland from the ocean, bays, or rivers having tidal action.

Long-range zoning is taken over by the State in a "coastal zone" area, defined in Proposition No. 20 as "extending inland to the highest elevation of the nearest coastal mountain range", limited, in Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego counties, to five miles inland from the ocean and waters having tidal action.

Southern California's coastal cities will be cut in two—setting up jurisdictional nightmares and making intelligent planning impossible.

People owning a lot lying within the "permit area" couldn't build a single-family home on their property without securing approval from the State—after having gone through the usual procedures for securing permits from local planning agencies. Assuming they received approval—and it's doubtful, the way Proposition No. 20 is written, that anybody could—any person could challenge the permit in court, without even posting a bond, thus blocking construction for an indefinite period of time.

Any person who wants to stop any construction—a sewer line, a bike path, an access road, or whatever—need not be a resident of California. Similarly, any city, county, school district, harbor district, etc. would be blocked from repairing, building or improving needed facilities.

Proposition No. 20 would lower the value of property in the affected areas without compensation to the property owner—setting a precedent for similar confiscation in every area of the state.

Proposition No. 20 would reduce local tax revenues to counties, cities and school districts in the areas affected with no provision for reimbursement from state tax sources—forcing higher taxes on local home owners.

State guidelines and controls on ocean front property are needed—but Proposition No. 20 is a disastrously wrong way to go about it.

Vote NO on Proposition No. 20!

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh

Has a good record on . . .
LAW AND JUSTICE

Wadie Deddeh's record rests on his belief that swift, impartial law enforcement is a must for our state. Deddeh has supported and authored bills to improve training and provide scientific technical aids to our local police.

Deddeh has also supported programs aimed at ending the causes of violence through better education, increased employment, and better incomes and housing for all.

When Deddeh was first elected in 1966, he authored a bill creating a night traffic court in San Diego County so the working man would not have to give up a day's wages to have his "day in court."

He has authored and co-authored legislation which increased state support for pornography and drugs.

To improve the swiftness of law enforcement Deddeh has worked to overhaul the California court system which is bogged down with a backlog of civil and criminal cases.

The unnecessary slowness of justice has bred contempt for the law by allowing criminals to walk freely in the streets, often committing other crimes, while others languish in jails without a speedy trial as required by the Constitution.

This is Deddeh's record on Crime and Justice, and based on that record the California Peace Officer's Research Association, representing police officers from every law enforcement agency in his district, has endorsed his reelection.

Gulls To Return For Spurs Game

The San Diego Gulls head for the road this week for two games before returning to the Sports Arena on Saturday when they meet the Denver Spurs.

Portland and Seattle will be the stops on the short two game road trip as the Gulls will be searching for their first road win of the season.

The Gulls return home Saturday, to meet with the defending WHL champs the Denver Spurs. Returning from last year's Lester Patrick Cup winners are goalie Bob Johnson, defenseman Chuck Hamilton, Bob McCord and Glenn Patrick and forwards Ron Borgeson, Claude LaForge, Milan Marcetta and Jim Shires.

M.V. Scores, But Smith Leads Helix To Victory

The Monte Vista Monarchs, having trouble getting on the scoreboard since star quarterback Art Spahr was injured, finally put it all together last Friday night, scoring 24 points against a pretty tough Helix defense.

The problem, however, was in the fact that Helix scored 34 points against a loose Monte Vista defense.

Dallas and Gillman Chargers Guests Sun.

Ghosts of Chargers Past, Sid Gillman and Lance Alworth, with pixies Billy Parks and Mike Montgomery, return to their spawning grounds as the Dallas Cowboys invade San Diego Stadium Sunday. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

Led by all-pro tackle Bob Lilly, the Cowboys have what a Charger offensive line coach Forrest Gregg calls, "The most disciplined defense in the league."

"No one plays the 4-3 better than Dallas and their secondary is superb," said Gregg, who earned a Super Bowl ring with the Cowboys last season.

A capacity crowd of more than 54,000 will watch the first NFL meeting between San Diego and Dallas. The teams played once before in pre-season of 1970 at San Diego, with the Cowboys winning, 20-10. While no traditional rivalry exists, nostalgia will be rampant Sunday.

San Diego will attempt to rebound from three consecutive defeats, the last a painful 26-14 battle with the Kansas City Chiefs before a record San Diego Stadium crowd of 54,533. The Chargers succumbed to a 13-point fourth quarter by the Chiefs after squandering scoring opportunities of their own including five missed field goals.

Q's Whack Prices; Sign George Adams

The Conquistadors are strengthening their team and reducing their prices — a combination designed to aid attendance.

The Qs signed 6-5" former Buck George Adams with a 34.5 scoring average this week. He is suited and ready.

The Qs cut the price of their upstairs corner reserved seats from $5 and $4 to flat out $3. Also cut are the upstairs $5 seats in the middle. They are now $4.

As an encouragement to voters, anyone who presents his ballot receipt stub at the New York Mets game Tuesday night will get a dollar off — even off the new low priced seats.

Between now and election night, the Qs meet Virginia Sunday evening. All games start at 7:30.

Atlas United All Alone In Soccer Lead

Atlas United gained undisputed possession of first place last week by blanking the Roadrunners, 2-0, in the pee wee division of the Suburban Soccer League.

Atlas was tied with the Continentals last week, but that team was surprised by the Raiders, 4-3, dropping the Continentals into a second place tie with the Lions, who won, 2-1 over the Razorbacks.

In the only other game played, the Rangers remained in a tie for fourth place with the Raiders by whipping the winless Celtics, 5-0.

The week's action brought Atlas United eight points on the season, two ahead of the Lions and Continentals and three ahead of the Raiders and Rangers.

In the midjet division, the Pros, who scooted to the top of the standings the week before, remained there by winning 5-3 over the Marauders.

The Cues and Rascals, tied for second place, kept pace with victories. The Cues belted the Colts, 2-0, while the Rascals romped over the Braves, 7-0.

In the only other action, the Chargers beat the Monarchs, 3-1, while the Rippers won their first game of the season, a 3-0 decision over the Playboys.

This Saturday's schedule will see the Pros and Colts tangle at 9:30 a.m. at Sunset Park in La Mesa. Pee wee action will be highlighted by the Atlas United-Razorbacks encounter at 9 a.m., also at Sunset Park. The Prep division plans a three-game schedule at the San Diego State soccer field beginning at 10 a.m.

Matadors Enroute To Gridiron Crown

By John Nicholson

The Mt. Miguel Matadors passed the first of two hurdles last Friday night and are now well on the way to the Grossmont League gridiron title.

The Matadors thumped Granite Hills, 14-7 in a defensive battle, but the team must still face Helix tomorrow night in an annual rivalry before getting a close look at the loop title.

Additionally, an unheralded Santana team last week completed its second straight upset, and must be considered carefully as a title threat.

With the conclusion of last week's play, the title chase became a three-way race, with Mt. Miguel leading Helix and Santana. Santana upset Grossmont, 8-7, while Helix claimed victory over Monte Vista, 34-24.

This week's action will see Mt. Miguel favored over Helix, Santana over El Cajon, Monte Vista over Granite Hills, and Grossmont over El Capitan.

Mt. Miguel's super defense will be out to stop the explosive Helix offense and Sam Smith. Mt. Miguel has been excellent at stopping the run, but last week also showed an awesome pass rush while extending its shutout string to 12 quarters before Granite Hills finally scored in the last period.

Helix has to rely on Sam Smith, who not only runs the ball in break-away fashion, but also can catch passes with the best of them. Game time is 8 p.m. at Mt. Miguel.

Mt. Miguel will keep one eye on Smith and the other on the Santana-El Cajon game in hopes of an upset.

El Cajon will feature a newly-discovered defensive unit which last week held the explosive El Capitan Vaqueros to just one touchdown. Santana will again rely on its superior defense, so the game may not have a lot of fireworks. Kickoff is 8 p.m. at Valley Stadium.

Two other contests will feature teams all but out of the race.

Monte Vista's new game plan of ball control football will be up against a flashy but spotty Granite Hills team in a game that will probably be high-scoring. The game is at 8 p.m. at Monte Vista.

Grossmont's once-victorious team will entertain El Cap's bruised and often beaten crew at Helix stadium. The Foothillers have a solid defense but haven't been able to score much all year. El Cap has had its up and downs — mostly down. Kickoff is at 8 p.m..

Tom Sperla Recovering

Mt. Miguel High School football player Tom Sperla, who was injured earlier in the season during a practice game, is much improved and on the road to recovery.

Sperla, who underwent an operation after a severe neck injury, was paralyzed, but has now regained partial use of his legs, according to his father, George Sperla, who operates Village Liquor and Wine Shop locally.

The youngster, who was a star baseball and football player prior to the accident, is undergoing therapy and was walking, with support, for the first time Monday.

He is in good spirits and is following the team in the local papers.

He said he wanted to apologize to Rocky Lancaster, who now wears his old uniform, because several tackles made by Lancaster have been attributed to Sperla in newspaper reports.

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh

Has a good record on . . .

JOBS

As Chairman of the Assembly's Transportation Committee, Wadie Deddeh's record means jobs for thousands of workers in the construction and operation of mass transit facilities.

One of the major producers of mass transit vehicles is in our local area.

Deddeh also continues to support Assembly Bill 528 which stems the flow of illegal aliens from taking jobs away from legal California residents.

Deddeh believes that the State has not done enough to help workers who have lost their jobs from less federal defense spending in the State. He also believes the State has not done enough for job-ready professionals such as teachers, business executives, engineers, and others who on their own acquired the talents and skills necessary for employment but have no job.

Because Deddeh believes this, he has served on the Legislature's Joint Committee on Economic Conversion which recommends measures to protect defense related workers from unemployment, and which seeks to find jobs for veterans who return from the war in Vietnam.

Deddeh also supported AB 2472 which directed the Human Resources Department to help unemployed professionals, and AB 2811 which would have established and created jobs for those unemployed if it had not been vetoed by the Governor.

This has been Deddeh's record on jobs.

Matadors Handle Eagles

Mt. Miguel High School's football team won its fourth league game in as many starts last Friday night, 14-7, over visiting Granite Hills.

The Matadors, highly touted for stopping the running attack, had to come up with superior defensive backfield and pass rush tactics to stop the Eagles, one of the league's most balanced offensive teams.

Playing an excellent ball control game, the Matadors struck first in the first quarter, as Ed Morris capped a drive with a plunge from the two-yard line.

The first opportunity Granite Hills had with the ball was a shaky experience for a Matador defense that had compiled two straight shutouts. The Eagles marched down to the 14-yard stripe before surrendering the pigskin.

Mt. Miguel got on the scoreboard in the second quarter on another Morris run — this time from the three-yard stripe.

Leading 14-0 at halftime, the Matadors continued the defensive battle as the second half opened, sticking to the ground except when quarterback Jess Jenner kept the Eagle defense honest with one of 17 pass plays, of which he completed 9.

Granite Hills finally hit enough passes to score late in the fourth quarter, when half-back Larry Downs ran it in from the eight-yard line.

Mt. Miguel will put its undefeated record on the line tomorrow night when the Helix Highlanders visit Spring Valley. A win over Helix would almost assure Mt. Miguel of the league title.

Prop. 14 Opposed

The Jamul-Las Flores School District Board of Trustees has adopted a resolution in opposition to proposition 14, the so-called Watson Tax Limitation Initiative.

According to the resolution, the district could lose up to $80,000 in operating revenue if the measure passes.

The trustees also voted to support proposition 5, a measure which gives school districts authority to provide programs without specific legislative approval.

BONECRUSHER—Mt. Miguel defensive half-back Rocky Lancaster (22) executes a bruising tackle on Granite Hills fullback Larry Downs (22). Mt. Miguel beat the Eagles, 14-7, to stretch its league leading record to 4-0. Tomorrow night, the Matadors will entertain Helix in a game that could decide who wears the loop crown. (Mark Coffin photo)

Croom Leads USD Past Loyola, 35-18

University of San Diego half-back Sammy Croom established four school records and tied another while pacing the Toreros to a 35-18 win last week over Loyola University.

The 6-2, 190-pounder, raced around and through the Loyola defense for 228 yards in 29 carries to set two single game marks.

That yardage brought his season total to 821, eclipsing the former USD standard of 622 set in 1958. Croom also scored three times, tying a record held by five others for touchdowns in one game, and his streak of having tallied one touchdown or more in seven straight games is still another record.

In addition to his 821 yards rushing, Croom has caught eight passes for 123 yards to give him 944 yards total offense, has returned three punts for 47 yards and eight kickoffs for 171 yards.

Croom's running mate, half-back Andy Sanchez, absorbed some stern punishment while grinding out 96 yards in 19 carries against Loyola. Offensively, the Toreros had their finest night of the campaign, moving for 495 yards, 373 on the ground and 122 through the passing of quarterbacks Henry Sintay and Tom Jones. The 35 points was a season high.

USD's record is four wins and three losses in its first college division competition since 1961. The Toreros have defeated Occidental, Claremont, Pomona and Loyola while dropping decisions to UC Riverside, LaVerne and Cal State Los Angeles.

The Toreros rest this week. Play resumes Nov. 11 when they host USU.

Add Wine to Beef

The French add wine to their beef ragouts, so why don't you? Brown beef cubes; add onion, garlic, herbs and burgundy to cover. Simmer until near doneness, then add some colorful freshly cooked vegetables. Serve with an Italian touch — a sprinkling of freshly grated Romano cheese. Buon Appetito!

HOW TO LOSE 10 POUNDS IN 10 DAYS

The Sensational New Diet That's Sweeping Europe!

There is nothing more distressing than to try all these fantastic diets and fail, but this is one diet that is just a little different from any of the others and maybe just that little difference is what makes it so outstanding.

What is so special about this diet? The most important thing is that you do not count calories. You also don't have to worry about the amounts you eat—some of them can be prodigious. At the same time, you must stick only to certain categories and combinations of foods. You are allowed meat and vegetables, all you want, so long as the ratio between them stays correct. You can drink, but you must not have any starches or sugars. Follow these instructions and in ten days you should have lost ten pounds. By some chemically recondite process, the balance of foods eaten actually burns away fat. Now you won't see any weight loss for the first four days of the diet, but on the fifth day you should have a five-pound loss. After that another pound will be gone every day until the tenth day. Beyond this point, expect one-and-a-half pounds of fat to be lost every other day for as long as you stay with the diet.

We do not claim to have a panacea cure-all, but this diet has been thoroughly tested. And, incidentally, in Europe we understand that after burning up all the fat in London it crossed the channel to start slenderizing its way through France and Holland. We would like to send all overweight people this nearly infallible diet, but we must charge $2.00. Send for yours while the supply lasts.

Here's your guarantee: We are so confident that this diet will do everything we say it will that if you are not 100% satisfied, just return the diet within ten days and we will double your money back with no questions asked.

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh Has a good record on . . . WELFARE

Last year Wadie Deddeh was among the leaders of the fight to insure welfare reform.

As a result California taxpayers have saved nearly $1 billion in welfare and Medical costs and there are today 230,000 fewer people on the welfare rolls than this time last year.

The legislation Deddeh supported said for the first time that if able-bodied men and women refused to take and available job commensurate with their talents they would not longer be able to draw welfare.

The Welfare Reform Act of 1971 tightened the regulations for welfare fraud and since its enactment there has been a decrease in the number of cases of welfare fraud.

ber of cases of welfare fraud.

At the same time the Welfare Reform Act increased the payments to those welfare recipients who are truly deserving. More money was made available to the aged, the blind and the disabled.

Deddeh has supported work and training programs which are designed to assist welfare recipients to become gainfully employed and financially self-sufficient.

Assemblyman Deddeh's record on welfare issues reflects his two objectives in this area. First, for those who are able to work to find them jobs and get them off the welfare rolls, and second, for those who cannot work, the aged, the blind, and the disabled, to provide them levels of support so they can live with a degree of dignity.

'Barefoot in Park' Offers Light-hearted Evening

We agree with Barbara Brownell, the energetic co-star of the current Off Broadway presentation, that going barefoot in the park now has a sort of kookie-happiness quotient.

As the wife of the popular leech and movie and stage star Tab Hunter, she convinces Hunter — and the audience — that she has points in favor of her philosophy.

With "open space" being in such short supply according to the self-appointed ecologists, going to the Off Broadway to see "Barefoot in the Park" may be a happier, temporary solution to whatever problems that keep you from being light-hearted.

The three-act comedy has Hunter and Miss Brownell as newlyweds in a fifth floor walk-up apartment. The bride's attractive, widowed mother and a deadbeat but charming bachelor who lives in the building's attic are the other principals. During a drinking evening, Miss Brownell, of free spirit, accuses Hunter, a rising young lawyer of being a "stuffed shirt". A separation follows. What did you expect? Meanwhile, Mama (Gloria Le Roy) and Frank Loverde, the attic inhabitant, become involved in what looks suspiciously like some middle-aged overnight sinning. This crisis brings the couple together with Miss Brownell becoming almost straight-laced, and Hunter — the foil — walking barefoot in the snow.

Of course you've seen it either on stage, the tube or in the movies. But "Barefoot" loses some of its charm or fun as performed by the Off Broadway cast.

In addition, there Floyd Ackerman, the theatre's managing director, who greets patrons with a warm smile.

Three Local Writers Earn Contest Honors

Three local residents were among winners in the annual Showcase Writers Club writing contest and received awards at the club's annual award night ceremony October 15.

Topping the list of local winners was June O'Neill, of Spring Valley, who earned a first place for her article, "Open Letter to a Young Radical". Other winners were Doris Akers, of Spring Valley, second place for the article, "The Beetle and the Peanut"; and Larry Stillman, of Lemon Grove, for the short story "The Yellow Period of Melvin Jenks" and a first place honorable mention for the article "The Damage Suit—Boon or Bane".

Those writers, as well as other winners, have their works published in the club's magazine "Showcase".

Max Goodwin, local publisher, was a judge in the contest.

Turnbull Gets Tv Spot

Bob Turnbull, a Lemon Grove youth who gave up a movie-television career for the ministry and who is now serving as the Chaplain of Waikiki Beach, has been signed for a segment of a Honolulu tee-vee show.

He will be in "The Little People", starring Brian Keith and Dianne Loomis. It is being shot by NBC.

Turnbull is the son of Dr. Amorita Treganza, a Lemon Grove optometrist.

The San Jose MERCURY recently updated the story to show that Gillis purchased 11 handguns—10 .38's and a .45 in December and January for more than $900. He told the MERCURY he gave them to friends, some of whom live in Mexico. Records show that the purchases were made at San Diego sporting goods stores. In buying one weapon he used his mother's Spanish name, Estaban Gillis Morales.

In his race against Schrade, Gillis polled 31,716 votes in the 39th Senatorial District last June to win the Democratic nomination. Schrade is a Republican.

Gillis told the MERCURY that he was aware that he had a so-called "police record" and said he had been arrested a "couple of times" for drunken driving.

"But I've never been investigated by a grand jury," he told the reporter referring to Sen. Schrade, who two years ago was the subject of three such investigations after he received a $5,000 campaign contribution from lobbyists representing thrift and loan firms who were pushing through a bill at the time.

Gillis, a lawyer in good standing in San Diego, rejected the idea that he would have to defend himself during the campaign. "Why should I defend myself. He's (Schrade) the man that has to defend what he's doing. I'm the challenger, Gillis said.

Traffic Rules Q's and A's

Each week a series of questions and answers will be published in these columns. Readers are urged to call or write in questions to which they want an official answer. Answer seekers need not identify themselves. Address "Traffic," P.O. Box 127, Lemon Grove, CA 92045 or call 469-0101.

Broadway-Imperial intersection in Lemon Grove appears more hazardous because cars often cross after the lights have turned amber. Isn't it illegal to enter an intersection after the amber comes on?

No. The law is that you may cross if the front wheels of your vehicle have passed beyond the limit line any time before the red light. All cross traffic must yield. It also indicates that drivers should move on the green with caution because the intersection may not be legally clear.

Can't someone stop those nuts who tailgate?

Tailgating is not only aggravating to the driver ahead, it's very dangerous. Tailgaters often become dominoes when accidents occur and are usually cited for following too close. A good rule of thumb is to allow a car's length for every 10 miles of speed. A three-fourths of a second "reaction time" the time it takes the driver to decide to take a specific action — should also be considered. Never mind those drivers who cut into the safety space you've created. They could be cited.

The first "bicycle court" will be held Saturday at 9 a.m. in the El Cajon Courthouse.

Specially trained high school students will perform as judges. Parents must accompany youngsters who are on trial. Charges will concern traffic law violations among youngsters 9 to 15 years of age.

Penalties are bicycle safety training courses when violators are found guilty.

College Opens Display Of Indian Works

An exhibit of Indian Arts and Crafts opened in the Grossmont Library Foyer Wednesday. Prepared by the Institute of American Arts, Santa Fe, New Mexico, the special exhibit consists of paintings, baskets, textiles and other artifacts. The exhibit will remain on display during regular library hours through November 30.

The month-long exhibit will be highlighted November 21 when the Honorable Robert L. Bennett speaks on "Indian Self-Determination — Reality or Myth." Bennett, presently director of the Center for Indian Affairs at the University of New Mexico, recently resigned as director of the Bureau of Indian Affairs in protest against administration policies concerning the bureau.

A career man in the Bureau of Indian Affairs for 31 years, he was the first Indian to serve as Commissioner of Indian Affairs in the country.

The public is invited to view the exhibit of authentic Indian artistry and hear a leading authority on Indian affairs speak. There is no charge for admission.

Fire Plugs Installed

The Otay Municipal Water District, as a means of decreasing costs in the future, is installing fire hydrants on all new water lines.

Some of the 700 hydrants in the district are installed in built-up areas, but some are also located in "the middle of nowhere", according to assistant general manager Alex Struthers.

A hydrant costs $173 and about $600 to install as water lines are built. Installation costs rise to $1,000 if the plugs are installed after the lines are put in.

sters an opportunity to take part in supervised recreation rather than loafing around the community. Except in a couple of instances, the older participants have joined the work force as useful citizens, according to the Center's Director, Dale Wood.

Some of the operational funds for the Center comes from an on-going subscription campaign conducted by this newspaper. 50 cents is paid to the Center's board of directors for operating the Center for each new subscription this newspaper's salesperson gets. Those who wish to make contributions directly to the Center may do so through Len Farness, at Len's Mens Shop in Lemon Grove. He is the chairman of the Center's board.

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh Has a good record on . . . TAXES

Deddeh's record stands for more than holding the line on soaring local property taxes. His record is that of trying to REDUCE them through increased state support to local government and school districts.

Deddeh is co-sponsor of AB 1000, the Reagan-Moretti tax reform bill, which would cut property taxes for the average homeowner about 20 percent, and provide tax credits for renters.

Three times this year Assemblyman Deddeh voted for the Reagan-Moretti Plan only to see it defeated in the Senate. In 1970 also, Deddeh voted for tax relief, and that year too, the Senate killed a bi-partisan plan to provide tax relief for homeowners.

This year Wadie Deddeh introduced an Assembly Constitutional Amendment which would base the property tax on one's ability to pay instead of the method of assessment now used. Such a change would protect the elderly and those who have lost their job from what is for them confiscatory tax rates.

To Deddeh, a man's home should REMAIN his "castle" regardless of his age or unemployment through no fault of his own.

Deddeh is also the co-author of legislation to restore the homeowners exemption for veterans.

Last year your Assemblyman voted for AB 1 which insured that the honest taxpayer would no longer pay more than his fair share. AB 1 provided a minimum income tax for the wealthy and instituted withholding to insure that no one escapes paying their taxes. It increased Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, and closed some tax loopholes so that oil companies, big corporations and financial institutions pay more of their share of the tax burden.

Deddeh's record proves he cares about your taxes.

United Crusade Is Good Deal For Spring Valley, Lemon Grove

Services valued at an estimated $95,000 plus were rendered to residents of Lemon Grove and Spring Valley last year by agencies supported from contributions to the annual United Crusade campaign.

Lemon Grove's Crusade chairman Robert Guest, United States National Bank branch manager, said that a "comparison between this year's Lemon Grove Crusade goal of $12,415 and the approximate $40,000 in services points to the outstanding 'deal' for the local community".

"This 'break' for Spring Valley," explained chairman Alex Struthers of the Otay Municipal Water District, "is made possible only because major firms and the military contribute into the city of San Diego more than half of each year's countywide campaign goal."

"Many of our residents give to the Crusade through this big block, so it is only fair that their gifts return to the home community. In Spring Valley we are asked to raise $3,730 for the Crusade and receive some $55,000 in agency services to local residents."

Lemon Grove residents received the following services from United Crusade supported agencies in 1971:

For the sick and handicapped: Visiting Nurses, 32 home visits. Mercy Clinic, 1,474 medical and dental services. San Diego Speech and Hearing Center, 535 clinical evaluations, speech therapy and hearing education sessions. United Cerebral Palsy, 252 hours of service. Homemaker Service, 60 days of care.

Counseling and other special services for children and adults: Family Service Ass'n., 140 interviews. Child Guidance Clinic, 246 patient hours. Catholic Family Service, 23 clients. Children's Home Society of California, 8 families provided adoption and related services. Salvation Army Welfare Dept., 80 families and individuals assisted with food, medicine and clothing.

Character building services for boys and girls: Boys' Club of El Cajon, 6 boy members. Boy Scouts, 1,072 boy and adult members. Girl Scouts, 669 girl and adult members. Camp

Cultural Foundation Seeks New Members

The Murdock Cultural Events Foundation is currently soliciting support and participation in its first membership drive. The foundation was formed in honor of Glenn E. Murdock, retired Superintendent of Schools of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, whose service to this district covered a span of 24 years.

The organization was established to provide various kinds of cultural experiences for the students of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District without additional burden to the taxpayers of the community.

According to Mrs. Phyllis Sprung, president of the Foundation, "We hope to provide a wide spectrum of cultural experiences for children, with an eye to 'rounding out' their education beyond the classroom. The local school budget does not always permit taking advantage of the numerous events available in our area."

Several kinds of memberships are available: a Sponsor Membership open to all clubs, organizations and associations, a Regular Membership, or a Contributing Membership.

Further membership information is available from Mrs. Sprung by telephoning 466-0056.

All-Candidate Political Rally Open to Public

KGTV will again telecast its annual political rally Sunday 11 a.m.-1 p.m.

This unusual, annual tradition began in 1966 and has the atmosphere of an old-fashioned country political fair with candidates and their supporters — or antagonists — giving voice to their opinions.

Most local and regional candidates will appear live, bringing along groups of sign-carrying supporters to cheer them on. Candidates who cannot be present to deliver their messages live will have an opportunity to pre-tape their statements at KGTV-10. Facilities for this, as well as air time, are provided by KGTV-10 without charge to the candidates. A special seminar was held earlier this year to instruct local candidates, who might not have had experience with broadcast media, in the most effective techniques for appearing on television.

The broadcast will originate live from the station's parking lot at Highway 94 and 47th ave. Channel 10 News Director Carl Siskind and Reporter John Beatty will co-anchor the program. Bart Hazelett and his Dixieland Band will also be on hand to lend a festive note. The public is invited to attend.

O'Halloran In Coliseum Fight Wednesday Eve

Friday Night Fights at San Diego's Coliseum is now changed to Wednesday Night Fights and San Diego's most popular fighter — Jack O'Halloran — will headline the opening card.

His opponent will be Lonnie Harris, a heavyweight who has yet to make the record books available locally.

On the card last week was Mexican middleweight champion Raul Delgado — complete with a blob of fat around his midriff. He lost a split decision to Lonnie Harris of Bakersfield who is a former California middleweight champ.

Off to a slow start, the scrap picked up momentum midway through the 10 round clash but neither man was knocked down. Delgado's face was puffed. Harris appeared unscathed.

In a 10-round co-feature, lightweight Memin Vega won a split decision over San Ysidro's Nacho Castenada. Nacho was called in the day of the fight after another opponent decided not to scrap. Vega, who has a killer reputation, carries the sobriquet "The Executioner". He almost lived up to his reputation Friday but Nacho was also a tough hombre.
